Mary Elmes : One of our own - born in Ballintemple in 1908

The Exhibition of Mary Elmes' life continues in the Cork City Library until the 31st October and includes a full documentary on her life including details of the Spanish Civil War and the Holocaust Concentration Camps and the children she saved, God rest her. She was an extraordinary woman and was offered the French Legion of Honour Accolade, which she declined. Mary Elmes was a very modest person; the Jews offered her their highest honour, Righteous Among the Nations, which she also declined; but which her family posthumously accepted it in 2014 and she also became the first and only Irish Citizen to be named Righteous Among the Nations. Mary is also known as the Irish Oscar Schindler. As you are no doubt aware, our New Bridge which was officially opened on the 27th September last, has been named after her. There is a great opportunity therefore for us all to learn more about this remarkable woman 'Mary Elmes ONE OF OUR OWN' at the exhibition in the City Library, which continues until the 31st October 2019.

Some Inspiration

Calm the Soul

When my boat, Lord, is storm-tossed and sinking; when fears in my heart take control, say 'Be not afraid' to my spirit and Your answer will calm the soul. When I flounder around in deep waters; when the stresses of life take their toll, a sudden deep hush steals upon me. Your gentleness calms the soul.

When my life seems too full of confusion and I have lost sight of the goal, as I stumble about in the darkness may Your gentle light calm the soul. I often live life on the surface; sometimes I'm playing a role. Help me cherish my own inner beauty. May Your tender love calm the soul.

When sinfulness tugs like an anchor; when guilt has me caught in a hole, I turn to You Lord for forgiveness, and Your mercy calms the soul. When I struggle with sickness and sorrow and eagerly long to be whole, I call on Your name to bring healing and the touch of Your hand calms the soul.

Reflections

1. The cure of the lepers is not just a physical cure, it was also brought the people healed back from exclusion into the community. Perhaps you have experienced the movement from exclusion to inclusion. What was it like for you to be accepted once again when you had been excluded?

2. Who were the Jesus people for you who brought about this change? For whom have been able to do this, perhaps by healing a rift with a friend, or by listening to the opinion of someone you had dismissed out of hand, or by opening the door in some other way to another?

3. Some people work hard at breaking down barriers in society, seeking inclusion for those who find themselves labelled as lepers by society or by a section of society. Where have you seen this happening? Who has been doing this kind of work? Where is the good news in such action?

4. When we do good for another we may not do it for the thanks we hope to get, but it can hurt when no gratitude is shown. How have you experienced the positive effects of thanks given and received?

Thought for the day

Inclusivity and inclusion are buzz words in our culture. We find the radical openness of Jesus very helpful today, as we try to see the future of the Christian project. St Paul himself has been called the "founder of universalism" (Alain Badiou). Two comments may help us reflect. Firstly, not everyone is guided by this vision—the evidence for "exclusivism" is all around us. Secondly, in the Christian vision, respect for all is grounded not only in creation ("image and likeness of God" but also in salvation ("God wants all people to be saved"). Both dimensions are important for Jesus, for Paul and for us today.

Prayer
God of mercy, your love reaches out to all without distinction. As we have experienced your compassion, may we show the same love to all.

K. O'Mahony OSA

Today's Hymns

Entrance

Love is his word, love is his way,
Feasting with all, fasting alone,
Living and dying, rising again,
Love, only love, is his way.

Richer than gold is the love of my Lord,
Better than splendour and wealth.

Recessional

Hail Queen of heav'n the ocean star,
Guide of the wand'rer here below:
Thrown on life's surge,
We claim thy care:
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, star of the sea,
Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me.

O gentle, chaste and spotless maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee:
Remind thy Son that he has paid
The price for our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.
