Some Inspiration

In different ways, the topic of faith comes up in all three readings.

Habakkuk

...the upright man will live by his faithfulness

2 Timothy

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus

Luke

Increase our faith.

Ordinarily, only the OT reading and the Gospel are on the same page; it is, therefore, unusual to find all three readings touching the same topic. This represents an opportunity to take up the essential challenge of faith today. The words of Benedict XVI have not lost their power:

Being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction.

Karl Barth, the great theologian of precisely faith, once wrote in a wry tone:

"Everyone who has to contend with unbelief should be advised that he ought not to take his own unbelief too seriously." (Karl Barth, Dogmatics in Outline)

PARISH DEFIBRILLATORS

There are now 2 Defibrillators located in the Parish, one in the village & one outside Murphy's Circle K Petrol Station. The code to operate both is 2017

Reflections

1. Faith can move mountains... well it can certainly get us moving. Recall a time when you were full of self-doubt, skepticism about a project, or lacking trust in God. What was that like? Contrast this with times when you believed in yourself, or in the value of a project you had undertaken, or when your faith and trust in God were strong. What kind of faith have you found enriched your life?

2. Faith is like a mustard seed—small— and sometimes we may be tempted to wait till our faith grows. Part of the message in the gospel is to use the faith we have, even though it may be small. That is how we grow in belief in ourselves and in God's presence in our lives. Does your experience back up this?

3. It is nice when what we do is recognised and acknowledged, but the desire for recognition leaves us vulnerable. It is not always forthcoming. It can be helpful if our main motivation in doing something is the value of the action itself. Have you experienced this?

4. Love is a free gift. What is given lovingly is not given because of a claim. What is your experience of the freedom of love, given and received?

Thought for the day

The cry of the disciples to the Lord, "increase our faith," resonates very much with us today. Is being a person of faith harder today than it has ever been? In one sense no: previous generations too had to struggle. But today has its particular challenges. For the most part, public discourse is against faith in general and against church in particular. It would be easy to lose heart. Just holding on to faith would be enough, not to mention growing!! We grow in faith by desire and by practice—desire for God and the practice of prayer. The times call us to focus on the heart of the Christian project—Jesus and the Gospel—and on the heart of discipleship—love and service.

Prayer

"Lord, increase our faith!" Open our hearts to your presence in our lives.
