Parish Confirmations

Congratulations to the pupils of Scoil Ursula and Beaumont Girls School who received the sacrament of Confirmation during the past week and best wishes to Beaumont Boys School 6th class who will be confirmed on Wednesday next.

All of these young people are receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit at this time in their lives. They are blessed with the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit to direct, guide and inspire them for their future.

May they be filled with courage, wisdom and understanding to face the challenges that lie ahead. May they always know that the Holy Spirit will be their constant helper and that they will never be alone or on their own.

We commend their teachers for preparing them for this important milestone. We acknowledge the good work, dedication and commitment of our teachers in our schools. We congratulate their parents, grandparents and families also. We pray for all of them.

Inspiration

The thread running the readings for the fifth Sunday of Lent should appeal to us all: we need not carry the burden of the past, whether it be moral or existential, our whole lives long. We "do" forgiveness, as we should! It really is possible to start again.

If you would like to read something challenging for Holy Week and Easter, I would suggest this book with its provocative title: Jesus Wasn't Killed by the Jews. Reflections for Christians in Lent. It is a short book (122 pages) with 14 compact chapters. The editor, Jon Sweeney, has assembled led an eminent team, both Jewish and Christian, men and women.

Available from Veritas; it can also be found online and for Kindle.

Anam Cara Cork, the organisation that supports bereaved parents, is holding it's monthly Parent Evening for bereaved parents on Wednesday 6th April at 7:15pm in the Clayton Hotel, Silver Springs, Cork City. This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age your child died, the circumstances of their death, or whether their death was recent or not. We also offer an online service. Thought for the day

The rush to judgment—so evident in our public discourse—is matched only by the resistance to forgiveness. Endlessly, we investigate, accuse, judge. As we all know, what is needed eventually is forgiveness—but where do we find it? In the Christian vision we do not have to carry the burden of our guilt forever precisely "because God in his forbearance had passed over the sins previously committed." (Rom 3:25 NET) In the current idiom, "we do forgiveness" and so we should!

Prayer

God, whose name is mercy, we thank you for your gracious compassion to all. We ask that, as we have received, so we may give and forgive. Amen.

K O'Mahony OSA

Reflections

1. Compassion for human frailty combined with a gentle challenge to a better life marked the response of Jesus. From whom have you experienced a compassionate challenge? What was that like for you? To whom have you given such a challenge?

2. The Pharisees and scribes self-righteously condemned the woman until Jesus brought them in touch with their own sinfulness. This was a conversion moment for them and they turned away from their quest for the death of the woman. Have there been times when your awareness of your own fragility and sinfulness has helped you to be less judgemental of others?

3. "What do you say?" can be an embarrassing question. Jesus had the courage to voice an opinion, even though it was against the party line of the day. When you have seen that courage shown – by yourself, or by another? What was the result?

PRAYER

God of power, God of mercy, you bring forth springs in the wasteland and turn despair into hope. Look not upon the sins of our past, but lift from our hearts the failures that weigh us down, that we may find refreshment and life in Christ, our liberator from sin, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, mighty and strong, for ever and ever.
Amen.
