Some thoughts on today's scripture.....

The numerous geographical details here help to emphasise that Jesus was a particular person who lived out his short life in a particular place and in a particular moment of history. He is 'that man from Nazareth'-- totally human, just like us. He is not a Superman who really belongs to another world. But as the Gospels gradually reveal, he is truly the Son of God, the full self-disclosure of God to an unsuspecting world. When I take time out to pray and to reflect on Jesus, this is the person I am meeting.

He is the One who shares with us the mind of God on how we are to live together in this life and how we are to protect God's creation. When I come to pray I must allow myself to be surprised by him; to be challenged and changed and to see the world as he sees it. Praying is an occupation that carries a health warning: it may lead to significant changes in one's life!

Observations

Bible Sunday has been long celebrated, typically on a Sunday close to Reformation Day (October 31st, 1517).

In 2019, Pope Francis instituted the Sunday of the Word of God as an annual commemoration in the Roman rite. The occasion was the 16th centenary of the death of St Jerome, the great bible scholar and translator of the Vulgate. The inspiration comes from Francis's own great attachment to the word of God. The document establishing Bible Sunday for Catholics is called He opened their minds, echoing the story of the disciples in the road.

The chosen Sunday is the third Sunday in Ordinary Time. The date is actually very suitable for two reasons. Firstly, although we have been hearing from Matthew since the start of Advent, on this Sunday we start the continuous reading of the Gospel. Secondly, the Gospel portrays the foundational preaching of Jesus, the proclamation of the good news.

Thought for the day

The heart of Jesus' proclamation is given in today's Gospel. As is often noted, the word "repent" is not the best translation of the original Greek and it would be better to use some other expression such as "convert." It really means a new way of looking at everything, a new mind or outlook. It may of course include being sorry about the past, but the real energy is towards the future: "convert and put your trust in the Good News." We could put it like this: from what are we called to conversion is important; more important is towards what are we being called?

Prayer

Open our hearts, loving Father, that we may know both healing and hope. Touch our inmost selves and bring us the wholeness we need. Plant in our hearts the vision of your reign that we be people of hope, faith and love.

K O'Mahony OSA

Reflections

1. Jesus moved to Capernaum to establish a home there, a home that would be secure and give him a base for his future ministry. Where have you found a secure base for your life and work?
2. "The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light" ... Jesus applies this to himself and his message. Who have been the Jesus people who have been a source of light to you? Have you been such a light for others?
3. "From that time Jesus began to proclaim...." This marks a turning point in the life of Jesus. From now on his mission was clear to him and he spoke out. Can you recall turning points in your life after which the future became more clear?
4. His message was a call to repentance, to a change of attitude toward God, from seeing God as one to be feared to seeing God as a God of love. When have you heard that call in your life? What was it like for you?
5. Jesus invited disciples to join him in his mission. What have been the occasions in your life when you have had an invitation to join someone in a great project? What was that like for you? Have you given that invitation to others?
6. In responding, the disciples "left their nets" to follow Jesus. Sometimes we have to disentangle ourselves from other things to give ourselves freely and wholeheartedly to a commitment. Have you experienced being "enmeshed" and being free?
7. In v. 23 we have a summary of the ministry of Jesus – "proclaiming the good news of the kingdom" and witnessing to this by teaching and healing. Who has been such a witness to you? What have been the signs that accompanied their witness? When have you done this yourself ?

PRAYER

God of salvation, the splendour of your glory dispels the darkness of earth, for in Christ we behold the nearness of your kingdom. Now make us quick to follow where he beckons, eager to embrace the tasks of the gospel. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.
